

Assistant/Associate/Full Professor of History

Hong Kong Shue Yan University

Hong Kong

The Department of History is inviting applications for a full-time Assistant Professor or above to start in 2024. Rank will be commensurate with qualifications, experience, and achievements. Candidates should have a doctorate degree in history and demonstrate the ability to effectively teach at the undergraduate and postgraduate levels while pursuing an active research agenda. The field of specialization is late imperial China with an emphasis on urban history. Preference will be given to those applicants who have at least two years of teaching experience and a good track record in research and publication. Proficiency in English is required, and the capability to teach world history is a plus.

Hong Kong Shue Yan University is the first private school in Hong Kong, with a student body of around 4,000 and a diversity of international academic staff, ranked by QS within the range of 300-350 and located on the top of Braemar Hill over the beautiful Victorian Bay. It aims to enable students to cultivate a whole, balanced personality and realize their full potential as individuals, as scholars, and as good citizens.

Applications should be addressed to: The University Secretary, Hong Kong Shue Yan University, 10 Wai Tsui Crescent, Braemar Hill, North Point, Hong Kong. It should contain (1) a cover letter, (2) a complete CV including a list of publications, (3) two representative publications, and (4) three references to be sent directly from the referees.
