

Head / Professor / Associate Professor/ Assistant Professor

Department of Law and Business

Department of Law and Business

The Department of Law and Business invites applications for academic position in the rank of Professor/Associate Professor/ Assistant Professor to start in January / September 2024.

Applicants should possess doctoral / master qualification in relevant academic and/or professional qualifications in law, and demonstrated ability to teach effectively at the undergraduate in at least one but preferably more of the following areas: Private International Law, International Arbitration and Dispute Resolution, Property Law and Legal Research. Candidates who can demonstrate research experience would be an advantage. The appointees are expected to support the department with administrative duties.

The academic rank offered will be commensurate with the academic and/or professional qualification and experience of the successful candidate. The appointment is contract-based initially commencing in 2024 and renewable upon mutual agreement.
