

Full-time Academic Position in Counselling Psychology

Department of Counselling and Psychology

The Department of Counselling and Psychology invites applications for full-time academic positions. Applicants should possess doctoral qualifications in Psychology or a related field with relevant teaching and research experience in at least one, but preferably more of the following areas would be advantageous:

- Developmental Psychology
- Biological Psychology
- Loss and Grief
- Neuropsychology
- Research Methods and Statistics
- School Psychology and Counselling (SEN)

The appointees are expected to provide research supervision to students at undergraduate and postgraduate levels. The academic rank offered will be commensurate with the academic and/or clinical background and experience of the successful candidate.

The appointment is contract-based, initially commencing in September 2022 and renewable upon mutual agreement.
