

Department of Counselling and Psychology

Position: Full-time Research Assistant

Closing date: 19th July, 2021

Job Duties:

The appointee will assist in research projects related to successful aging, elderly caregiving, health psychology, and COVID-19-related public health topics. He/She will be responsible for (a) liaison with NGOs and academic partners, (b) co-ordination of data collection efforts, (c) data collection, (d) production of promotional materials, and (e) preparation of news articles and reports.

Requirements:

Applicants should have (i) a degree in social sciences, journalism, marketing, psychology, public health or related discipline; (ii) good competence in writing Chinese and English articles; (iii) some experience with social science research; (iv) a good command of interpersonal and communication skills; (v) be self-motivated and organized.

Appointment will be made on contract basis for two years.

Applicants should send a completed application form, together with a cover letter and CV, to Dr Bobo Lau of Department of Counselling and Psychology at hplau@hksyu.edu.

All applications will be treated with strict confidence, and only the shortlisted applicants will be contacted.